THURSDAY.....JULY 21, 1859.

Public Speaking.
Capt. Simms and Hon. James B. Clay speak in the Bald Knob precinct to-day.
Capt. Simms speaks at Bridgeport to-morrow and in Frankfort on Saturday night. Let there be a good rally of the Democracy at these appointments.

Officers of Election.
The following are the Judges and Clerks of election in this county:
FRANKFORT.—D. S. Crockett and Geo. W. Lewis, Judges; J. W. Tate, Clerk.
FORKS OF ELKHORN.—James Bratton and Thomas Steele, Judges; W. W. Jett, Clerk.
PEAK'S MILL.—W. Morris and J. H. Pindexter, Judges; F. T. Hayden, Clerk.
BRIDGEPORT.—John Mayhall and A. Crockett, Judges; Urban Williams, Clerk.
BALD KNOB.—E. S. Bailey and Lloyd Hackett, Judges; W. F. Russell, Clerk.
The sheriff has not yet published his appointment of deputies for the several precincts.

The Prospect.
We say to our friends throughout the State to be of good cheer. The August battle will result in one of the most complete and glorious victories that the lion-hearted Democracy have ever yet achieved. Our gallant standard-bearers in the State campaign, Magoffin, Boyd, James, Green, Garrard, Frazier, Richardson, and Bates, will all go into office by a majority reaching from eight to twelve thousand, and with a grand rally of the Democracy this week and next they will get full 15,000. We shall elect eight of the ten Congressmen beyond a doubt, and our chances for the other two are equal, if not more than equal, to those of the Opposition. We shall elect a majority in both branches of the State Legislature—thus securing us a United States Senator and other important officers, and allowing us to make a fair and just apportionment of the State.

It is not often that this paper indulges in boasting, and our friends may rely upon what we say. But to secure these noble results every Democrat must do his duty between this and the first day of August. Let none of us rest or fold our hands in the belief that so glorious a consummation of our desires can be achieved without effort. Faith is good in political affairs, but works are better—then let us be up and doing. The time for writing and speaking is nearly past, and the time for work has begun in earnest.

One thing we wish to impress—doubly impress—upon every member of our party—let there be no SWAPPING or SCRATCHING upon your ticket. Make a clean record for yourself, one that you can point to in after years with pride and pleasure. Let no Democrat be so recreant to the fealty he owes to his time-honored principles and his victorious party organization as to scratch the name of a single candidate from the Democratic ticket when he comes to record his vote. If this advice is followed, the Opposition will be convinced to a deeper grave than that which hides the ignoble remains of Know-Nothingism. Let us have a "long pull and a strong pull and a pull together." The Democracy of the Ashland District are giving an example worthy of imitation by the Democracy of the other districts. Success is our motto.

Mr. Vallandingham's Card.
We call attention to Mr. Vallandingham's card, to be found in this issue of our paper. It is a frank and explicit document. The charge made against him was ridiculous in the extreme, and more attention has been given to it than was justly entitled to. It seems that there was a misunderstanding on the part of the gentlemen who gave the certificate as to Mr. Vallandingham's meaning in the remarks made by him in the conversation with them, and we trust the matter will be allowed to drop as it is. It is both unpleasant and unprofitable to continue discussions about matters of fact of a personal character.

We notice that our name is freely used in a controversy of a very personal character, now being carried on in the newspapers between two well known politicians of this county. It is scarcely necessary for us to say that we have no personal concern with the affair one way or another, and we have certainly no desire to be implicated.

The Cable Question.
In our last issue we said that Dan W. Lindsey, Esq., was elected City Attorney upon "the cable question," for which remark we are charged with doing him injustice by the Opposition paper. Mr. Lindsey is a gentleman for whom we have a high personal regard, and we recognize in him merits and qualifications for the office he holds above any such side issues as "the cable question," yet our statement rightly construed will not be denied by any one acquainted with the facts attending his election. We did not say that he disapproved the conduct of Mr. Bruce in prosecuting "the boys" for celebrating the cable, or that we ourselves did, but we do assert that a great many voters of the town, without distinction of party, felt themselves outraged by Mr. Bruce's official action in the premises, and determined to beat him in the succeeding election. Mr. Lindsey got the benefit of this movement against Mr. Bruce growing out of the cable question, and was enabled to defeat him, although he, Mr. B., was then the incumbent of the office and regarded by many as the candidate of the party to which both belonged. Consequently we were right in saying that Mr. Lindsey was elected on "the cable question."

As the Opposition paper gives its recollection of "the popular sentiment" in reference to the cable celebration, we shall give an item from our own memory. A night or two after the cable celebration and the prosecution attending it, a crowd collected upon the streets, built bonfires, and burned nothing less than the respectable and venerable effigies of several gentlemen of the city council, whom, from their politics and official position, the Opposition paper will be prone to recognize as the particular friends and guardians of Frankfort. "The boys" who indulged in these extravaganzas were not all Democrats. What, then, let us ask, was "the popular sentiment" about that time? We think it was veering in another direction from that now pointed out by the Opposition paper; indeed so strongly that the paper in question deemed it prudent to let those engaged in offering a public insult to the City Council go unwhipped of justice; and we, as none of our political friends were assaulted, concluded that we would let "the boys" have their fun without interruption from us. If anybody then thought that "the Yeoman establishment deserved to be pitched into the river" for the position it took on the cable question, there were two to one who believed another printing establishment deserved a worse fate. That concern was like the boy in the corner—it had nothing to say. It let its friends suffer martyrdom in effigy without even venturing to find decent interment for their ashes. Was this the result of "the popular sentiment" that contemplated the unlawful destruction of our property?

If the Opposition paper is determined to dig up the cable question for use in this canvass, we trust it will level its blows in a proper direction. Let it attack those who celebrated the cable, and burnt the City Fathers in effigy. We had no hand in the one or the other, and we did not write the article which after so long a time is discovered to be rank with treason. The head and front of our offending is that we permitted "the boys" to criticize the conduct of the "City Fathers" through our columns; and in this connection we wish it distinctly understood that if this paper at any time sees proper to disapprove the official acts and conduct of those in authority under the city government, it is no more an evidence of hostility on our part to the town itself than a criticism upon the federal administration is proof of a lack of patriotism in the Opposition press. We regret that a single human being ever entertained the opinion that our establishment deserved to be pitched into the river; but if such is the fact, we console ourselves with the reflection that we should have to be above the common lot of mortals not to have some evil-wishers.

Capt. Wm. E. Simms
Will address his fellow-citizens at the following times and places:
Bald Knob, Franklin county, July 21.
Bridgeport, Franklin county, July 22.

In Scott county, at such points as may be fixed upon, on the 27th, 28th, and 29th.
Mr. Harlan is invited to attend these appointments.

Bell and Magoffin's Appointments.
Messrs. Bell and Magoffin, candidates for Governor, will speak at the following places and on the following times:
Mt. Sterling, Montgomery co., Thursday, July 21st.
Winchester, Clarke co., Friday, July 23d.

Speaking to commence each day at 1 o'clock, P. M.

We call attention to those who want a fine and fashionable article of clothing, to the advertisement of M. B. Swain, Merchant Tailor, No. 4, Masonic Temple, Louisville. He always employs the very best workmen, and cannot fail to give satisfaction to the most fastidious who may call upon him. He has a fine supply of the latest styles of cloths, cassimeres and vestings, for summer wear, and he has also an excellent assortment of cravats, shirts, handkerchiefs, collars, ties &c., &c.

A CARD.
My competitor, in his speech in the Bridgeport precinct on Saturday, read a certificate signed by Messrs. R. W. Blackburn and J. M. Hewitt, Jr., stating in substance that I had said, in conversation with those gentlemen, that if I was not elected to the Legislature I would be in favor of a removal of the Capital, and that I knew three Democrats who could have this done.
With all proper regard for the memory and veracity of the gentleman who has seen proper to give a certificate of a private conversation had with him in the hearing of his clerk, in his own house, I must be allowed to state, that if I made the ridiculous remark attributed to me, I did so with qualifications or reservations which are not reported. My feeling upon this subject has been, that if a systematic violation of the rights of suffrage was kept up and countenanced in Frankfort, for myself, I should cease to feel that I had any interest in the affairs of the town that under any other circumstances I should entertain as one of its citizens. Certainly no friend of free institutions or man of honor could long preserve any strong attachment to any locality or government where the highest and dearest civil rights of his fellow-citizens were wantonly trampled in the dust—and "if this be treason, let them make the most of it."

In conclusion, I take this occasion to say to my fellow-citizens that if I am honored by an election at their hands, I shall do everything in my power to promote the interests of the town to which I am bound by every tie; and if I am defeated in a fair election, I shall bow to the fiat of the people, and my attachment to this place be no wise diminished. All that I ask is that the humblest qualified voter, alike with the most exalted, whether he choose to cast his suffrage for my competitor or myself, shall be permitted to do so in peace.

GEO. R. VALLANDINGHAM.

AGAIN ON THE TRACK.—It will be seen by the following card that Col. T. L. Jones, the Opposition candidate for Congress in the Tenth District, who a few days since withdrew from the contest, is again on the track:

To the voters of the Tenth Congressional District.—Gentlemen: Inasmuch as the cause of my declining to prosecute the race for Congress in this District has been partially removed by the recovery of my family, and as that cause has been in some quarters misconstrued and perverted, to my personal prejudice, therefore at the solicitation of my friends I am again a candidate and shall at once resume the canvass, keeping the appointments as heretofore made.
July 18, 1859. T. L. JONES.

$400!
A CHANCE FOR THE FAITHFUL.

All who believe that Bell or Harlan have the ghost of a chance are invited to face the music! We are authorized to propose the following bets to any of the Opposition in this latitude who have the requisite amount of means, faith, and pluck to accept them, viz:

$10 on each Congressional district in Kentucky separately—that Magoffin's majorities exceed those of Buchanan, and that Bell's majorities fall short of those of Fillmore.
$50 that Magoffin is elected Governor.
$50 that Magoffin gets 2,500 majority.
$50 that Magoffin gets 5,000 majority.
$30 that Magoffin gets 7,000 majority.
$20 that Magoffin gets 10,000 majority.

Also,
$70 that Simms beats Harlan in this district.
$20 that Simms beats Harlan and Trabue together.
$10 that Trabue gets more votes than Harlan.

All the foregoing bets to be taken together, and in case either of the parties named should not run the race out, the bet in reference to him is drawn.

[From the Lexington Statesman.]
A Test of Confidence.
We are requested by a gentleman of this city to say he is ready to bet that Capt. Wm. E. Simms will be elected as the Representative of this District in the next Congress.

$1,000

Are there any takers?

[From the Albany Standard, July 14.]

A Singular Affair.—A Man Falls in Love with his own Daughter—Grand Denouement.
Some fifteen years ago a man named George Bristol left this city for the shores of the Pacific. At the time he left he had a wife and one child, the latter only three years old. They resided in the town of Waterloo. At that time his wife and child were living with her father. Some two years after the father and mother of the woman died, their estate was disposed of to satisfy mortgages, and Mrs. Bristol and her child were thrown upon the cold charities of the world for a living. She was very feeble in health, and, of course, was unable to take care of herself.

The mother and child came to this city, where they lived for some five years, at the expiration of which time the mother died and the girl was left alone in the world, to do as best she could. Being now about ten years old, and a smart, active, good looking girl, she soon found a situation in a respectable family. Here she remained till she was fifteen years old, when she bound herself out to a milliner. She served three years at that business, and had become mistress of her profession. Now, the strangest portion of this revelation is to be told. The girl is now over eighteen years old, and a perfect model of her sex.

During this long interval, it must be remembered that the girl lost all track of her father. Her beauty attracted the attention and admiration of a spruce-looking gentleman who met her on Broadway. He was a man of about forty years, but his appearance did not indicate that he had ever seen over twenty-five summers. An acquaintance was made between her and the gentleman above alluded to, and a final engagement entered into for marriage. The day was set and all the necessary arrangements made for the ceremony.

On the appointed day the pair, accompanied by their respective friends, met for the purpose of having the plighted ones joined in wedlock. Just before the minister commenced the marriage rites, an old couple entered. They were formerly neighbors of the Bristol family, and had watched the girl grow up from infancy, and were now anxious to see the choice she had made in a partner for life. Imagine the surprise of all about when the old couple above referred to recognized in the "man of the girl's heart" her own legitimate father.
For a moment all was amazement and sadness, but on the state of things being fully realized, the scene turned to one of joy. An absent father had recovered a lost daughter, and the assembled throng of friends were highly delighted that the affair had resulted as it did. The love that had before burnt so brightly between the two had now become a flame as inextinguishable as the fires of Vesuvius. A queer world, this.

MARRIED.

On the 18th inst., by Rev. J. N. Norton, JOHN HENRY BAYNE and MARY ANNA KALTENBERG, all of Frankfort.

DIED.

At his residence, on the morning of the 19th inst., DR. CHARLES G. PHYTHIAN, aged 51 years. The deceased was born in England, where he received an excellent education, and removed to this country at the age of twenty years. His long residence in Frankfort, has made him appear as almost a native amongst us; and his kind and gracious manners, and unaffected benevolence have endeared him to many hearts. Dr. Phythian's professional skill was acknowledged far and wide.

With the horror of cant which is peculiar to well-bred persons, he seldom conversed about his religious views and feelings, and yet few Christians have been more attentive to the reading of the Bible and daily prayer, or more truly devoted to God. From his childhood, Dr. Phythian had been trained up in the bosom of the Episcopal Church, and his attachment for it was warm and unwavering. With a sure and steadfast trust in his Savior, he received the Holy Communion, for the last time, three days before his death, and fell asleep without a struggle or a groan. The Doctor will be greatly missed, and his place will not soon be filled.

Rheumatism Cured.

To the readers of the Yeoman: Preserve this notice. If not afflicted yourself, you may serve suffering humanity by sending it to some one who is.

Dr. Mortimore, by personal treatment, and the use of his remedy, by Physicians and Druggists, has cured probably twenty thousand cases of this painful and paralyzing disease—comprising cases of every seeming form, from those of a recent inflammatory (acute) character, to old chronic cases of ten, twenty, and even thirty years' standing.

This disease is becoming more prevalent every year, and is seldom cured, or even alleviated, by the usual course of treatment. In its active form it often proves fatal, or if not soon arrested, becomes chronic—stiffens the joints, contracts the ligaments, muscles, and tendons, and thus renders the sufferer a cripple for life, or, if ever afterwards cured, even by the use of this remedy, requires longer treatment and greater expense. This is a vegetable internal remedy which cures the proprietor of it after long suffering, and all the usual remedies known had failed, and is safe to be used in any state of health—even by the most delicate female or child, and its success, in curing rheumatism, is attested by thousands, among whom are eminent physicians, ministers of various denominations, prominent journalists, and individuals of high standing throughout our country, such as should inspire confidence in every rational mind.

This evidence can be had on call at the office; or those at a distance, by addressing the proprietor, will receive, by mail, a circular of evidence. The remedy can be had at $5 per bottle, or five bottles for $20. Persons ordering at a distance can remit at the proprietor's risk by registering letter, and the medicine will be forwarded by express, or as directed, to any place in the United States or Europe.
